DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a sales system comprising a recording medium used in purchasing a commodity and a register apparatus that performs processing for settlement of payment for purchase of the commodity, classified in class 705, subclass 21.
 - II. Claims 6-8 and 13-15, drawn to a recording medium, classified in class 705, subclass 17.
 - III. Claims 9-10, drawn to a register apparatus, classified in class 705, subclass 16.
 - IV. Claims 11, drawn to a server apparatus, classified in class 705, subclass 28.
 - V. Claim 12, drawn to a mobile information terminal, classified in class 705, subclass 26.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Invention I is related to each of Inventions II and V as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In this case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed, because a sales system in accordance with Invention I need not include utilizing a recording medium and a register apparatus to carry out a manual sale. Each subcombination has separate utility by itself (i.e., does not require other sale system components to function).

Invention II-V are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination II has separate utility such as serving as a recording medium used in purchasing a commodity. Subcombination III has separate utility such as serving as a point of sale or register apparatus. Subcombination IV has separate utility such as serving as server apparatus used to manage shop inventory and sales related to a commodity. Subcombination V has separate utility such as utilizing a mobile device to purchase commodities. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claim invention:

If applicant elects Invention I, applicant must then elect one species from each of the following groups:

Group 1:

- Species A: directed to a sale system comprising a recording medium.
- Species B: directed to a sale system comprising a mobile information terminal.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
